

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Do I have to be a resident of Elizabeth House to attend Elizabeth High School (EHS)?

No. We essentially accept any pregnant teenager or young mother (up to age 20) who requires our services.

Do I require an English eligibility certificate to attend EHS?

Yes, if you are in the youth sector program. However, there is a possibility of some adult students being accepted, who do not require an eligibility certificate.

Do I have to live on the island of Montreal to attend EHS?

No, we are the only English high school of this type in Quebec so we accept students from all school boards from all over the province.

Is it necessary for me to register at the beginning of the school year (September)?

No, students are accepted at any time throughout the school year.

Is there a specific grade level required to attend EHS?

Any high school student is eligible.

Is it a problem if I am not at the same grade level for every school subject?

We have multilevel, individualised learning so we accommodate our program to suit the needs of every student.

Who takes care of my baby while I am in school?

If needed, there is a free on-site nursery for babies up to 18 months of age.

What does it cost to attend EHS?

School fees are $120.00. This fee includes workbooks, all outings, special events (holiday parties and end of year celebration), a yearbook, an agenda and school supplies.

Does EHS provide the courses necessary for me to obtain my high school leaving diploma?

Yes, as well as all required courses for CEGEP entrance.

Why is EHS so special?

Not only do we provide the academic requirements to graduate, in addition, our program is especially designed for young mothers with parenting, pre-natal and post-natal support.

Would Youth Protection Services be automatically involved in my daily life if I attend EHS?

No. We are a school and our focus is on education.

If I attend EHS, will my files be kept confidential?

Yes, absolutely.

How accessible is EHS by public transportation?

We are located close to Jolicoeur metro (a 5 minute walk).

Am I eligible for a student bus pass from the STM if I attend EHS?

Yes, we have all of the necessary forms.

Pregnancy and new born babies require many absences (doctor's appointments and sickness). How flexible is EHS?

Since we teach individually, the curriculum will be adjusted to your absences, however your progress is directly related to your attendance.
